Blue Christmas

REO Speedwagon

I'll have a blue Christmas without you
I'll be so blue just thinking about you
Decorations of red on a green Christmas tree
They won't mean a thing if you're not here with meI'll have a blue Christmas, that's certain
And when those blue new heartaches starts hurting
You'll be doing alright in your Christmas of white
But I'll have a blue, blue ChristmasDecorations of red on a green Christmas tree
Just won't mean a thing, no 'cause you're not here with meAnd when those blue, blue snowflakes start falling
That's when those blue, blue memories start calling
You'll be doing alright in your Christmas of white
But I'll have a blue, blue, blue ChristmasYes, I'll have a blue, blue Christmas
Yes, I'll have a blue, blue ChristmasBlue Christmas
Blue, blue Christmas
I'm having a blue
Please come home
I miss you so
