Memphis Blues

Jet Black Alley Cat

Honey I'm on fire
You done torched my head
Must cool it down - might as well
Our love's already dead, oh

So close your ears, close your eyes
Close your body, close your mind to me
And kill the lights, blow me off
I ain't ever good enough, you'll see

Well baby it's a cold night down
In Memphis, Tennessee
The blues are playing loud
There's no party on the town
Lost hope for you and me

Yeah, let's go

Honey I'm all out
I guess I've made my bed
I believed in love - now I don't
And it feels like I'm dead

So close your ears, close your eyes
Close your body, close your mind to me
And kill the lights, blow me off
I ain't ever good enough, you'll see, yeah

Well baby it's a cold night down
In Memphis, Tennessee
The blues are playing loud
There's no party on the town
And I lost hope for you and me, yeah

Well baby it's a cold night down
When you wake up you'll see
Well baby it's cold night down
In Memphis, Tennessee

Whoa oh, oh, oh, oh

Well baby it's a cold night down
In Memphis, Tennessee, yeah
And the blues are playing loud
My body's on the ground
I gave up on you and me

Whoa oh, oh, oh, oh

La, la, la
La, la, la
La, la, la
