Badass

Janiva Magness

I would like to say a few words
Something's weighing on my mind
It's become the perfect time
You think you're Badass
You think I'm waiting around
But I'm not I'm notI met a lot of yous before
And I've left a lot of yous
I guess you'll be one more
You think you're Badass
You think I'm waiting around
But I'm not I'm not'Cause I'm having too much fun
Living my own life 'till the sun comes up
I wish you knew me better
You don't have a clue
I won't pretend you do - no I won'tDoing my own thing, I don't need nobodyYou call to break plans I don't give a damn
You say you're running late I'm out on the town
You think you're Badass
You think I'm waiting around
But I'm not I'm not'Cause I'm having too much fun
Living my own life 'till the sun comes up
I wish you knew me better
You don't have a clue
I won't pretend you do - no I won'tI'll be doing my own thing, I don't need nobody
