

Brighter Days

Leeland

Time keeps moving on
Through the sunshine and the storm
And my dreams are set in stone
And someday Ill be who I wanna beFor now Ill wait
For the sun to shine again
And for now Ill wait
For the rain to pass awayAnd Im looking for the brighter days
When all my hurts seem to fade away
Im looking for the brighter days
To come my wayFaces come and faces go
But none seem to look my way
And walls have stood and walls have fallen
But my heart seems to waitFor now I'll sit
At the end of the road
And for now Ill wait
At the end of a pathway, yeah, yeahSee, and I'm looking for the brighter days
When all my hurts seem to fade away
And Im looking for the brighter days
To come my wayIll see the sun one day shine upon me
Ill see the sun one day
And watch the nighttime turn to morning
But for now it all comes back aroundAnd Im looking for the brighter days
When all my hurts seem to fade away
Now Im looking for the brighter days
To come my wayIm looking for the brighter days
To come my way

Lyrics provided by

<https://damnllyrics.com/>