Brighter Days

Leeland

Time keeps moving on Through the sunshine and the storm And my dreams are set in stone And someday Ill be who I wanna beFor now Ill wait For the sun to shine again And for now Ill wait For the rain to pass awayAnd Im looking for the brighter days When all my hurts seem to fade away Im looking for the brighter days To come my wayFaces come and faces go But none seem to look my way And walls have stood and walls have fallen But my heart seems to waitFor now I'll sit At the end of the road And for now Ill wait At the end of a pathway, yeah, yeahSee, and I'm looking for the brighter days When all my hurts seem to fade away And Im looking for the brighter days To come my wayIII see the sun one day shine upon me Ill see the sun one day

And watch the nighttime turn to morning

But for now it all comes back aroundAnd Im looking for the brighter days

When all my hurts seem to fade away

Now Im looking for the brighter days

To come my wayIm looking for the brighter days

To come my way

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/