Ultra Blue

Thrice

Unabashedly pursue the truth that we cannot deny
A revelation shining through
Orchestration Adonai
A revolution ultra-blue
The methodic battle cry
Though some say there'll be no coup
We'll never know unless we try to see it through
And find a different point of view
One where faith is not taboo
And we'll all learn to see the world as new
Sometimes things [Incomprehensible] proved to be an outright lie
But it seems we always knew in some unspoken lullaby
I'll see you at the rendezvous
Raise our voices to the sky
Though some said there'll be no coup
We'll never know unless we try to see it through
And find a different point of view
One where faith is not taboo
And we'll all learn to see the world as new
Revolution ultra-blue
Revolution ultra-blue
Revolution ultra-blue
