Find it in you, raise your eyes Look beyond the place you stand Towards the furthest reaches And to the smallest of thingsThe sound you are hearing Is the symphony of what we are Revelation will not come With heart and mind closed and dividedNo need of sun to light the way Across the ages, we have reigned as we endured Through the storm fronts we will ever surely pass To stand as never ending lightThrow away the mantle Awake from your uncertain hesitation No way to describe or equate the feeling No end to what is at your commandA million thoughts run through you Concentric circles, ever greater But you have always known This is not all there is To your questions there'll be answersNo need of sun to light the way Across the ages, we have reigned as we endured Through the storm fronts we will ever surely pass To stand as never ending lightLet there be, let there always be Never ending light Let there be, let there always be Never ending lightLet there be, let there always be Never ending light Let there be, let there always be
