Ribbons Of Blue

Boney M

Ribbons of blue remind me of you
Ribbons of red are the way that my heart bled
Memories so clear are still ringing in my ears
So I wanna send to you my ol' ribbons of blue
Ribbons of blue now remind me of you
Ribbons of red are the way that my heart bled
Memories so clear are still ringing in my ears
So I wanna send to you my ol' ribbons of blue
Got me a ribbon, bright blue ribbon for my hair
Made me a promise, now I know he didn't care
Touched by his first kiss, fooled by his first song

The way he led me along with my ribbons undone
Ribbons of blue now remind me of you
Ribbons of red are the way that my heart bled
Memories so clear are still ringing in my ears
So I wanna send to you my ol' ribbons of blue
Ribbons of blue now remind me of you
Ribbons of red are the way that my heart bled
Memories so clear are still ringing in my ears
So I wanna send to you my ol' ribbons of blue
