Yours To Keep (feat. Q'AILA)

Living Legacy

I got a fever from last night,
we were soaking wet it felt so right.
I got a feeling that you and I,
will never regret climbing up so high,

and if you want more of me,
all you have to do is be, the one I need.
and if you want more of me,
I can be here for you, I can be yours to keep.
Yours To Keep.

Take my hand let's go
yours to keep.

I hold key to your desire,
let's take the next train to paradise.
I hope you're up for a fun time,
put your face up against mine.

and if you want more of me,
all you have to do is be, the one I need.
and if you want more of me,
I can be here for you, I can be yours to keep.
Yours To Keep.

Take my hand let's go
yours to keep.
