

Don't Do It

Johnny Burnette

If I had a girl that loved me
Just as much as she loves you
I'd stay in her arms every doggone day
And never would be untrue You can't win
(You can't win)

Don't do it, my friend Well, you told her lies and alibis
You tried to make her think you care
But when she wants the little bit of love you promised
She can't find it anywhere You can't win
(You can't win)

Don't do it, my friend One of these days you're gonna find yourself
All alone and, oh, so blue

Don't come to me for sympathy 'cause it'll be too late
There won't be a thing I can do for you Well, you'd better take her in your lovin' arms
And tell her that you're so ashamed

Don't try to be smart and break her heart
'Cause you're gonna play a loser's game You can't win
(You can't win)

Don't do it, my friend One of these days you're gonna find yourself
All alone and, oh, so blue

Don't come to me for sympathy 'cause it'll be too late
There won't be a thing I can do for you Well, you'd better take her in your lovin' arms
And tell her that you're so ashamed

Don't try to be smart and break her heart
'Cause you're gonna play a loser's game You can't win
(You can't win)

Don't do it, my friend You can't win
(You can't win)

Don't do it, my friend You can't win
(You can't win)

Don't do it, my friend
