

Drown

Burning Image

Singing the songs of loneliness
Is what I think about when you are gone.
Someone told me I was wrong
Who do you pray for, Father Garces?
Do you ever pray for guys like me?
For my pain and miseryI will drown here
Someone save mePeople with money get all your blessings
What are we, for you to leave behind
You must think that we don't mind
Don't waste your time with the poor and homeless
They don't pay enough to save their souls
Now I'm feeling so aloneRepeat chorusWhat you said was wrong, to me
What gives you the nerve?
Can't you stay and comfort me?
Is that what I deserve?Repeat chorus
