

Nightmare

Veracity

All these thoughts
Drive me insane
The light goes dark
Confused again My Minds shutting down
And I barely can breathe
The Fear's taking over
What's left here of me Still asleep haunted in my dreams Wake me up from this darkness
Wake me up me from all this pain
Bring me back all the years
Release all the fears
Till they're just memories Wake me up from this darkness
Wake me up me from all this pain
Bring me back all the years
Release all the fears
Erase my nightmares I'm so lost
Inside my head hanging on
By just a thread I want to wake up
Want to open my eyes
But I can't escape
All the darkness inside Still asleep haunted in my dreams Wake me up from this darkness
Wake me up me from all this pain
Bring me back all the years
Release all the fears
Till they're just memories Wake me up from this darkness
Wake me up me from all this pain
Bring me back all the years
Release all the fears
Erase my nightmares BRIDGE
Scared of these thoughts
Scared of the dark
Scared of what is
Tearing me apart I scream & I fight
I run & I hide
From this nightmare
Inside Wake me up from this darkness
Wake me up me from all this pain
Bring me back all the years
Release all the fears

Till they're just memories
Wake me up from this darkness
Wake me up me from all this pain
Bring me back all the years
Release all the fears
Erase my nightmares
