That's What Sean Said

The Goodwill

Take a deep breath, let it all out
I'll never be okay
It's playin' in my head every day that I'm never good enough fo you And I can't believe I'm goin' over the edge I can't believe it's gettin' this far Yeah, and you're puttin' things in my headAnd my chest is cavin' in press off everything everytime you strike your problems with fear
Just think that Sean said "tomorrow will be another day, will be another day"No one understands Just let me be No use tryin' to help
'cause you can't see through me Lookin' in the mirror through my eyes just reminds me I will never succeed Watch me open up and bleed, drop to your knees Powerless until it's over For you to clean up your bloody messAnd my chest is cavin' in press off everything everytime you
strike your problems with fear
Just think that
will be another day"Take a deep breath, let it out I'll never be okay
It keeps playin' in my head every day
that I'm never good enough fo you, good enough for me So just watch meAnd my chest is cavin' in press off everything everytime you
strike your problems with fear
Just think that
will be another day, day"Tomorrow'll be another day So don't worry
'Cause that's what Sean had to say
