

Tread Lightly

Mastodon

Thru the ages
All the weary and the blind
Facing the unknown
Off the venom
A center our lives
Knowing not your own is unwise
And I will return for more
The light will lead you ashoreParalyzed by
Paralyzed by
Paralyzed by thorn insideTo the angel
Breathing on me from the right
A guilt you'll never knowFrom the devil
Staring from the left hand side
Souls to animal
Recede your eyes
Sulk in disgustWhen there is doubt look to the obvious
And I'll decide what you will pay
Changing your mind seals our fateParalyzed by
Paralyzed by
Paralyzed by thorn insideOpen your eyes
Take a deep breath and return to life
Wake up and fight
Fight for the love and the burning lightOpen your eyes
Take a deep breath and return to life
Wake up and fight
Fight for the love and the burning light
