

After All (Svenson & Gielen Remix)

Delerium

She knows the voices in her mind
They tell her to leave
She's tired smiling madly
Until silence becomes very silently
A noise in her mind After all she has nothing inside
No good to give, no meaning to live
The mist engulfed tonight
Every single star After all they shared
Could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lie She knows the noises in her mind
Nothings left but screaming silence
After all she feels numbness inside
The feeling's gone she's upside down
The pictures behind her closed eyes
This time you went too far After all they shared
Could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lie After all they shared
Could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lie After all she's got nothing inside
No good to give, no meaning to live
The mist engulfed tonight
Every single star After all they shared
Could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lie After all they shared
Could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go

She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lieAfter all they shared
Could he simply say no
After all they shared
He turned away from her to go
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lieAfter all they shared
After all they shared
She said she wouldn't cry
That was really just a lie
