

Little Bird

Laura Marling

Oh Rosie,
Where have you been?
I couldn't save you but I tried Rosie
I tried
Why did you run
From everyone?
Who only tried to love you
Rosie, only tried Little bird, if I only knew
Maybe I'd be more like you
With a feather in my wing
Is it spring?
Do I sing?
May be I like pleasure pain
Of going and coming back again
And what I leave behind
I come back to find
It's no longer mine Why not run
From everyone?
Who only tries to love you Rosie
Only tries Little bird if I only knew
Maybe I'd be more like you
With a feather in my wing
Is it spring?
Do I sing?
May be I like pleasure pain
Of going and coming back again
And what I leave behind
I come back to find
It's no longer mine
