Sadder Day Morn

Hybrid Ice

Robert Scott Richardson

I close my eyes I try to hide the things I'm feeling
Can someone tell me where I belong
I'm hearing the voices from nowhere
Time after time I hear them calling me
In my head in this song
Look around, all around you
Nobody really wants to be alone
Look around, all around you
Sanctuary, solitary, solitude of home

Sadder day morn
Sadder day morn
Sadder day morn

Can you make sense of it
Can you get used to it
Heavy metal sun go on dreaming
I was born with it
I'm not ready to commit
Everybody knows it's just a feeling
I know the way to spend the day
Just with you on a sadder day
We had some fun now we've gone our way

Sadder day morn
Since you've been gone sadder day morn
Sadder day morn
Since you've been gone it's a sadder day morn
You better move on

Look around, all around you
Nobody really wants to be alone

Sadder day morn
Sadder day morn
Sadder day morn
Since you've been gone it's a sadder day morn
