

Into the Never

Brainstorm

You know it's much too late,
'cause your destination ends ahead where the water turns to steam into a suicide machine Capture the moment before it's gone You've got the strength to carry on
Not always knowing, what's wrong or right
Your only choice is to decide I'm back to take for you the blame
Here to receive for you the shame into the never Fingers of fire, coal and lead
Fondly love me till you're dead
Now you never will believe
You're dying to leave
