

Blame It All on Me

Adam Skinner & Dan Skinner

There's fire on the doorstep
Search lights in the hall
What a difference a day makes Just to think that yesterday we had it all

Blame me for the sorrow and the dark clouds in the sky
You can say you're justified
I'll be your alibi

You can blame it all
you can blame it all you can blame it al on me (x2)

The sirens sign a warning
You just looked at me and laughed
Now i stand here in the ruins
All alone with just these faded photographs

Frame me for the murder of the love you sent to die
Now pretend i never tried
I'll be your alibi

You can blame it all
You can blame it all
You can blame it all on me (x2)

I gave everything i had just to keep this love alive
For the sake of what we had
I will look you in the eye
And tell us lies

You can blame it all
you can blame it all
you can blame it all on me (x3)

You can blame it all Go and blame it all

You can blame it all on me
