Carnivore

Clawfinger

Give me a reason
i give you good advice
coz' we are all reactions we're thinkin over twice the public execution is got to be well planed get yourself the right tools and watch those good eventsfast and painless sharp and stainless
creatures always have to die
fast and painless
hard and shameless
no remorse make surely fry
carnivore until i die
don't think it's over once the work is done throw away the skin of bold and walk away the crumps invite you're friends make it up and hope that they can't tell if no one smells the difference you know that it's done wellfast and painless
sharp and stainless
fast and painless
fast and plainless
don't forget to watch the clock that's a big mistake the worst of real the demages the last who can escape we grant some fucking pointless once it's over done
the last advice i give you is don't tell anyonefast and painless

fast and painless
