Melody Lee

The Damned

Melody Lee, a broken mind and a broken dream
A burst of speed, a change of heart
Your life was cruel, they called it artMelody Lee, you need a mirror to set you free
You know you can't cheat tomorrow
If you hide, it'll end in sorrowMelody Lee, you gotta find your secret enemy
You're on the road with nowhere to go
If you die, there's no one to knowForget your heart, you need not stay
A second longer than today
