

Jumpdafuckup

Soulfly

Jump the fuck up
(Aaa)Motherfucker you don't understand
All my hate
Motherfucker you don't understand
All my rage
Motherfucker you don't understand
All my pain
Motherfucker you don't understand You seem to sever all my frequencies
I'm tethered to your energies
And everythin' turns inside out
I can't be killed but I'm not too proud
Maybe you would like to peek through the curtain
At the same mistake you know you always make
But all I really want to know is
Are you gonna lay the fuck back down
Or jump the fuck up Walkin' in the streets and lookin' at all this shit
I'm full of hate don't fuck with me
Walkin' in the streets and lookin' at all this shit
Open up your eyes and fuckin' see
We got the tribe against society
We got to fight the real enemy
Get the fuck up stand the fuck up
Back the fuck uuup Love is, is makin' things a bit insane
And I don't care who stares or stays
The only thing that matters ends
Will you reach out if you can't resist
Maybe you don't give a shit for the rest of us
But if you do the time is now if it ever was
If you're gonna fight whatcha gonna do
Jump the fuck up
(Oh, oh)Motherfucker you don't understand
All my hate
Motherfucker you don't understand
All my rage
Motherfucker you don't understand
All my pain
Motherfucker you don't understand How dare you single out my honesty?
Compare me to your travesties
I only want to see you fight

The darkness you wanna live your life by
And if you're gonna quit
I don't give a shit
What the fuck I'm a Mack truck
Are you gonna give up like a bitch
Or jump the fuck up Walkin' in the streets and lookin' at all this shit
I'm full of hate don't fuck with me
Walkin' in the streets and lookin' at all this shit
Open up your eyes and fuckin' see
We got the tribe against society
We got to fight the real enemy
Get the fuck up stand the fuck up
Motherfucker I'm a self destructive piece of shit
Smear me in
I don't owe you a god damn thing
This life has never had the swing
I don't wanna be immortal or legend or anythin'
'Cuz the longer I'm alive the better off you'll be
Get ready for epitome come on and pity me
Will you kill me if I say please? I'm the same old reasons not to try
What the hell
Beat to death with a shovel and a new smell
Come and get me mom would never let me do it
I'm ruined I don't want anythin' from you
'Cuz I've got nothin' left to prove c'mon
My time everythin' feels fine goodbye
Killin' from the inside
