

Warren's Song, Pt. 8

Bracket

The bags underneath my eyes
Catch all the tears I cry
Where were you when everything went wrong You suck colors from my life
You took away my paradise
Don't come crawling back when I move on Just tell me what you see
When you look down at me
I'm sure there's something that I'm doing wrong again
