If You Only Knew

The Mavericks

You wouldn't walk away so proud and tall
If you knew it, how I wanted you at allI can't hide it anymore because it's true
(Ahh)
Hmm, if you only knew who's in love with youWell I dream about you every night and day
And all the sweet things that I'd like to sayBut darlin' you don't even have a clue
(Ahh)
Hmm, if you only knew who's in love with youIt feels like my heart skips a beat
Whenever you are near
And everytime you walk away
Well I wish that you were hereWell I know that there's a lot of other guys
Who will promise you the world with all their liesBut I'm the only one who's feelin' blue
(Ahh)
If you only knew who's in love with you
Oh alrightIt feels like my heart skips a beat
Whenever you are near
And everytime you walk away
Well I wish that you were hereWell I know that there's a lot of other guys
Who will promise you the world with all their liesBut I'm the only one who's feelin' blue
(Ahh)
Hmm, if you only knew who's in love with youBut I'm the only one who's feelin' blue
(Ahh)
If you only knew who's in love with you
Hmm, if you only knew who's in love with you
And if you only knew who's in love with you
