

Wartime (FX Groove Mix)

Funker Vogt

You grow up in the wartime but the wars are all over peacetimes aren't easy for a warror like youthere's really nothign left what you can do now that the war is over and no one needs a heroyou fought your wars it was no game
with all your force always the samehere all the work is done and now your are still young there never was much fun so you have paid the billyou will be soon forgotten cause no one likes the war and you are just a symbol for this bloody gameif they ever could they will look you up so be careful try to hide don't give them a reason
