

Monkey See, Monkey Do

Khrysis

[intro]
[laughing]
Ay yo 50
What i tell you
We aint even have to say shit
They did it
[laughing]
[chorus]
Monkey see monkey do
Dont ever make the first move
Just let em' come to you
Cause they always gunna see and do what the other one do
So let em' come to you
The rest of us follow suit
Monkey see monkey do
Tweedle-de-tweedle-dum
If they really want it bad enough well then they gunna come
Now here they come as we expected now we just set em' up
Check-mate motherfucker
Games over
We won
Tweedle-de-tweedle-dum
It doesnt take much
For me to raise such a stink up
When motherfuckers hate your guts
You aint even gotta say much
For me to put a pen to a blank sheet of papers
Like smearing blood stains with a paint brush
I cant explain what it is my brain does
But however it works its insane
Its plain nutz
And it aint just my brain thas dangerous
Its a whole combination of things
It takes nutz
And im not affriadi to raise the stakes up
I got a million bucks in the banks and 8 trucks
For anybody who gets on the track and spanks us
Im patiently waiting for the day
Im anxious

To see the look on ya fake mugs
When you thugs go bankrupt
    Ya drunk
    Ya aint tough

Whatever you drank musta just turned ya into some gangstas
    This is me talking motherfucker
    This aint drugs
    You wanna pop, shit wake-up, then make-up
    FUCK THAT

    Its too late chump now face up

I pray for the day that someone who spits with the calliber that nas and jay does
    Opens up his jaw to say something or rattle my name off
    Or rattle the first thing from the top of his brain off
    So i can blow the fuckin dust off of this chainsaw

    And give him the surgery that he came for
    Till i pull the paint off
    I never been shot

But i think me and 50 musta been cut from the same cloth
    Cause ive always came off
    Like ja's chain
    When they try to rush him and lost

And came back and gave him a watch in exchange for it
    I dont stop
    The only thing i wait for
    Is day that i dont gotta report to probate court
    Cause ima give ya all the reason to hate more
Cause ive been holding my toungle till i got a sprained jaw
    Alot of rappers on my list that just aint ja
    And ima read that motherfucker off from april
    You pussies think i went soft since 8 mile
When i come back ill be shootin more than just paint balls
    Trust me
    [chorus]

    Monkey see monkey do
    Dont ever make the first move

Cause they always gunna see and do what the other one do
    So let em' come to you

If they really want it bad enough well then they gunna come
Now here they come as we expected now we just set em' up

Games over
We won
Tweedle-de-tweedle-dum
[outro]
Fuckin dummies
This aint chess
Ya playin motherfuckin checkers
This shit is all day man its too easy
We playin chess you playin checkers
You bout to get ya motherfuckin asses jumped Fucking punks
And by the way
We aint just talking to one person
We talking to every-motherfucking-body who wants to bring it cause we bringin it to anybody who wants to bring it
So bring it
Don't pick up the ball if you don't wanna play man
Its all fucked up now
The fuck im spose to do now?
Huh?
The fuck im spose to do?
Haha
Yo, we out
