

Eminence in Putrescence

Avulsed

[music: juancar 2/99]

[lyrics: dave rotten]a realm of sickness - with rotting landscapes gory red skies - nauseating air

a hidden hell - for tortured souls decomposition - is everywhere[chorus:]

feeding from souls - of melting corpses

absorbing power - and evilness amorphous being - mighty entity an eminence - in putrescencea long deep cave - (its) macabre palace bleeding cadavers - instead of walls blood, bile, pus - dripping around forming the river - of rottenness[chorus:]

an eminence - in putrescencea putrid stench - pervade the ambience fermenting innards - decomposed limbsthe twisted bodies - screaming in pain soulless remnants - left to rota realm of sickness - with rotting landscapes

an eminence - in putrescence
