

Remind Her (feat. RJ)

Eric Bellinger

[Intro: Eric Bellinger]

I know you want me, yeah, yeah

I know you needed that

[Verse 1: Eric Bellinger]

I know you been workin' hard, you been workin' hard

And you know I been on my job, I been killin' them all

Take up so much of my time plus you be on your grind

But I finished early tonight so[Hook: Eric Bellinger]

I'ma come through with that reminder

I got it, if you need it, a reminder

Yeah, I'ma remind you 'bout that swang, I'ma remind you 'bout my stroke

I'ma remind you that your body never felt this way before

I'ma remind you 'bout that shit that I be doin' with my tongue

I'ma remind you I'm that nigga, I'ma remind you I'm the one

In case you needed that

In case you needed that

I know you needed that

I'ma remind her[Verse 2: RJ]

Remind you how foolish

But I want you to be a fool for me when I pull up

And side in your units

Give you all of me, 'til you fall asleep, have you callin' me

I might not always I.M.Y you with the whinny faces

But tonight, I'ma wine and dine you with the finest Aces

I get to kissin' all up on your spine, firmly grippin' the back of your thighs

Had to remind you how you felt before me, ain't feel no better[Hook: Eric Bellinger]

I'ma come through with that reminder

I got it, if you need it, a reminder

Yeah, I'ma remind you 'bout that swang, I'ma remind you 'bout my stroke

I'ma remind you that your body never felt this way before

I'ma remind you 'bout that shit that I be doin' with my tongue

I'ma remind you I'm that nigga, I'ma remind you I'm the one

In case you needed that

In case you needed that

I know you needed that

I'ma remind her
