

The Fool

Heartless Bastards

I've got so much love to give
Need you in my life
I need someone to hold me
Someone to hold me tight
Wanna feel the warmth of your skin
Hearts beat in time
Wanna feel the warmth of your soul
You open up my mind
Oh Lord, it's not easy at all
Oh Lord it's never easy at all
No I opened the door
You stood at the gate
You never came inside
Oh love is a game
I don't know how to play
I'm the fool I need some shelter
For this organ on my sleeve
I'm an open wound
You took a part of me
Oh Lord, it's not easy at all
Oh Lord it's never easy at all No I opened the door
You stood at the gate
You never came inside
Oh love is a game
I don't know how to play
I'm the fool
I've feeling so lonely
All hope is lost
Oh
Oh, oh
