

Desire (April Towers Remix)

Champs

Started with explosions
The sound of bombs
In your heart, but it's just like everything
Just like everything,
The sounds reflect and fall apart
It's in come the sound of your love
It started strong, but it quickly fades
It's the echo, echo, echo
As your heart beat fades away
Echo, echo, echo of your love
It's like DESIRE that burns like the sun
Echo, echo, echo in your love
It's like DESIRE that burns And was your bang bang to a whisper
It was a scream to a???
It was a time wave to a ripple
The echo of your heart
The echo, echo is fading
And your heart is hesitating
Like I knew it would
Like I knew it would
The echo of your heart
Echo, echo, echo of your love
It's like DESIRE that burns like the sun
Echo, echo, echo in your love
It's like DESIRE that burns
