Days Go By

Adema

Sometimes I just get so frustrated
I don't even bother sleeping anymore
And all this seems overrated in all of us
Is all the things we said and done
If we can see them lying on the floor
And I ask them why can't they remember
All of this this will be forgotten
Surrender there's nothing we can do to stop them
That's just the way it goes, that's just the way it goes
Days go by, I just can't keep track of the time
Dreams are made for fools and sages
Nobody ever leaves with what they came here for
Still they gotta keep turning pages
In all of us is all the things we wished we done
If we could see them wash upon the shore
And I ask them why can't they remember
All of this will be forgotten
Surrender there's nothing we can do to stop them
That's just the way it goes, that's just the way it goes
Days go by, I just can't keep track of the time
I go back to the way it was
This feeling it can't be wrong
It's coming on way too strong
I go back to the way it was
This feeling it can't be wrong
It's coming on way too strong
Remember all this will be forgotten
Surrender there's nothing we can do to stop them
That's just the way it goes, that's just the way it goes
Days go by
(All of this will be forgotten)
Days go by
(There's nothing we can do to stop them)
Days go by
(All of this will be forgotten, will be forgotten, will be forgotten)
