Justified

Smokie Norful

I was preaching a sermon one Sunday and uh

It was about, it was a parable

And it was talking about the uh, the disciples and Jesus

When they were going through a corn field

And they began to pick the cornAnd the Pharisees, the legalistics of the day, they came

And they were chastising them that

'Why are you doing this on the Sabbath?'They had this whole discourse and dialog between the two of them

Jesus was saying, 'Listen, do you, do you not remember that you

You, yourself aren't even worthy

You guys break unleavened bread on, on the Sabbath

And you kill the sacrifice, you clean the sacrifice They have a need and it's my job and my responsibility

To meet their need and I'm at their need

I trump the synagogue, I trump the Sabbath

I'm Lord of your life, I'm Lord of everything that is you

I'm Lord of this, this day, recognize who you're talking toBut in the course of the whole thing what I realize is that

The dialog was between the Pharisees or the religious leaders of the day

Was between the dignitaries, the officials of the Church and Jesus

The disciples never uttered a wordHe literally started embodying his permanent position in our lives

Because he stepped in between the law and the people

He says, 'No, I'm Grace and because of Me

They don't have to defend themselves to you"I'll do all the talking, My blood will speak through all of eternity

I have justified them, even in their wrong, I know that they are wrong

I know that they make mistakes, I know that they are not perfect

I know that they do things that are not pleasing "But even in their wrong, My blood will speak on their behalf

And I will just', somebody should have shouted right there

Because He didn't kill you for all the sinful acts that you committed

But he justified youGod bless me with this song, it simply speaks the life of that message

And I'm just excited to be able to share it with youHey, justified me, glorified me

Paid my ransom and I've been redeemed by his blood

Go to Calvary, I've been made free

Despite my enemy, I thank God, I'm justifiedPaid a price for my life

And all that was wrong, His love made it right

Now what greater sign can any man show?

That know with his own blood He made me wholeHe justified me, glorified me

Paid my ransom and I've been redeemed by his blood

Go to calvary, I've been made free

Despite my enemy, I thank God, I'm justifiedIf my sins had their way I never would have made it

With a debt I just couldn't afford to pay, He came and saved me

When the enemy said that I couldn't, God said go ahead

Because you're covered by me awesome, awesome powerful bloodThough I, I should've been dead and never kept alive

God's grace and his mercy were on every side

When it looks like I can't, God says I can

And he won't let me fall in the enemy's handOh, I'm just glad to know that God saved me

His grace and his mercy

They watched over me all night long

If it had not been, if it had not been

If it had not been, if it had not been

If it had not been for the lord that was on my side

Hey, listen I got some testimonies listenJust like Nineveh that was headed for destruction

God stepped in and he said

(Not guilt)

You gonna live and you won't see the day of destruction (Oh oh oh)Just like Daniel who was condemned to the lion's den, God said

(Not guilt)

You're gonna live

(You're gonna live, yeah)Just like David who was dearly beloved inspite of God said

(Not guilt)

Yeah

Hey

(Let's talk about you)If you be honest with yourself tonight

If it hadn't been for the grace of God

You would've been, you could've been

Yeah, listen, heyTo the liar

(Not guilt)

To the cheater

(Not guilt)To the deceiver

(Not guilt)

Even to the believer

(Not guilt) There is their point no condemnation to them

(Not guilt)

That are in Christ Jesus

(Not guilt) Yeah, yeah

(Not guilt)

HeySome of y'all got it twisted, listen

(Not guilt)

If it hadn't been for God

(God did it) You wouldn't have made it

Hey, don't get confused about who kept you

Hey

(God did it)When the enemy said that I couldn't, God did it

(God did it)

When my haters said that I wouldn't, God did it

(God did it)Hey, I thought we'd never get out of the poor house but (God did it)

I thought we'd never see the White House but I'm claiming it (God did it)Hey and if you be honest He's been over your house (God did it)

Every grateful heart just bless his name (God did it)Who delivered you?

(God did it)

Be honest about it, who kept you? Yeah (God did it)Come on and testify who brought you, hey (God did it)

Hey, just shout God did it (God did it)Point to heaven and give him glory, God did it

(God did it)

Come on and testify, hey
(God did it)One more time if your praise is ringing say God did it
(God did it)

Hey yeah, yeah, hey

(God did it)Every time I turn around, it's but God

But God, but God, but God

They said I wouldn't but God

They said I couldn't but God

They say I should've been dead but God

They say I should've been sick but God

They said I should've have never made it but God, yeahCome on and just shout God did it

(God did it)

God did it

(God did it)God did it

(God did it)

God did it

(God did it)Don't believe yourself

(God did it)

Like your grateful self

(God did it)

Yeah, everybody say

(God did it)
