Endless Summer

Darin

Watched the sun sink to the ocean
Driving home on highway one
The smell of sea and suntan lotion
That last day of summer's just begunAll the time and all this history
Is it all? So beautiful to me
YeahI can't let go and I don't wanna leave... yeah
Don't want to know that we're leaving tomorrow
I don't wanna say goodbye
Something tells me this is where we end
I don't wanna see you cry
I'm holding on
To the endless summer
To the endless summer
Yeah...Reality is getting closer
So many things we've left unsaid
We shared the tears, we shared the laughter
And no one knows what lies aheadAll this time and all this history... oh
Is it all? So beautiful to meI can't let go and I don't wanna leave... yeah
Don't want to know that we're leaving tomorrow
I don't wanna say goodbye
Something tells me this is where we end
I don't wanna see you cry
I'm holding on
To the endless summerSince we had so much time together
Now it's running out on us
With each breath I take
We just fade away
We come to perfect place together
And memories are all I have to keep
I'm holding on
YeahI can't let go and I don't wanna leave yeah
Don't want to know that we're leaving tomorrow
I don't wanna say goodbye
Something tells me this is where we end
I don't wanna see you cry
I'm holding onI can't let go and I don't wanna leave yeah
Don't want to know that we're leaving tomorrow
I don't wanna say goodbye
Something tells me this is where we end

I don't wanna see you cry
I'm holding on
To the endless summer
