Ayurveda

Breathe deep; donâ€™t let the stigma of the action get the best of you
Hold it in until you feel sage advice grabbing hold of you
I donâ€™t know this place
Donâ€™t recognize my face
And itâ€™s weighing on me

Tunneling through the walls, carpeted floors and abstract light,
Toward a separate existence I identify as being right
I donâ€™t know this place
Donâ€™t recognize my face
And itâ€™s weighing on me

I feel sweet release of my tensions
I can perceive in all dimensionsâ€

Pull me out I donâ€™t want to be here anymore!
Pull me out, fear Iâ€™ve fallen in too farâ€

Breathe deep; donâ€™t let the stigma of the action get the best of you
Hold it in until you feel sage advice grabbing hold of you
I donâ€™t know this place
Donâ€™t recognize my face
And itâ€™s weighing on me

Pull me out I donâ€™t want to be here anymore!
Pull me out, fear Iâ€™ve fallen in too farâ€

Salvia, salvia, salvia, salviaâ€

I donâ€™t know this place, donâ€™t know this place, donâ€™t know this placeâ€
Donâ€™t recognize my face
Pull me out I donâ€™t want to be here anymore!
Pull me out, fear Iâ€™ve fallen in too farâ€
Pull me out of here!
Pull me out of here!
Pull me out of here!
Iâ€™ve seen enough for now!
