

7 Minutes

Darren Espanto

You push me away as you slam the door
You're screaming out, you can't take this anymore
You're wondering what we're still together for Do we even know what we're fighting for?
Are we losing ourselves this time? Saying things we don't wanna say
Only hurting the one we love the most
You took a cab and just ran away
To the station where we first met I won't give up on us, didn't mean to do you wrong
Don't turn your back on love, with me is where you belong
Coz' I would rather fight with you than be happy with someone else
No I won't give up on us, 7 minutes 'till the train departs
(7 minutes 'till the train departs) I'm running down the street, calling out your name
But you're not looking back as you slowly fade away
So out of reach but you're just a block away from me
Did we even know what we're fighting for?
Are we losing ourselves this time? Saying things we don't wanna say
Only hurting the one we love the most
You took a cab and just ran away
To the station where we first met I won't give up on us, didn't mean to do you wrong
Don't turn your back on love, with me is where you belong
Coz' I would rather fight with you than be happy with someone else
No I won't give up on us, 7 minutes 'till the train departs I can't take another sleepless night
Are we gonna have crazy minds?
All we need is just one more try...
If we'd only make it through this night
I promise we're gonna get it right before the sun will rise we're falling, fighting, crying, again for one last time... I won't give up on us, didn't mean to do you wrong
Don't turn your back on love, with me is where you belong
Coz' I would rather fight with you than be happy with someone else
I won't give up on us 7 minutes 'till the train departs I won't give up on us, didn't mean to do you wrong
Don't turn your back on love, with me is where you belong
Coz' I would rather fight with you than be happy with someone else
No I won't give up on us
7 minutes 'till the train departs
7 minutes 'till the train departs
7 minutes 'till the train departs
