

Resurrection

Daphne and the Mystery Machines

I'll lay here til my resurrection hope the good lords ears heard each confession all the answers to every question have been on my tongue since my inception (whooooah)

I fought the good fight
I finished my course
I've held the faith
and I've had remourse

I'll wait for you
behind the pearly gates I'll hold your seat
no matter how long it takes
and I'll shine down on you
from the day
of my wake
(of my wake)

I fought the good fight
I finished my course
I've held the faith
and I've had

I'll wait for you
behind the pearly gates
I'll hold your seat
from the day
of my wake
(of my wake)

I fought the good fight
I finished my course
I've held the faith

and I've had

I'll wait for you
behind the pearly gates
I'll hold your seat
from the day
of my wake
(of my wake)

I fought the good fight
I finished my course

I'll wait for you
from the day
of my wake
(of my wake)
Yeah, yeah (outro)
