

Hungry

Daniel Thornton

Author of my faith, I'm fixed on You
When all is said and done I'll not be moved
You have set my feet upon the Rock
In You I trust, in You is my hope forever I'm hungry for You
I'm desperate for You
'Cause one day, just one day in Your house
Is better than anywhere else, better than anything else
I'm hungry for You
Is better than anywhere else, better than anything else
I'm hungry for You You speak Your word
Life flows, faith rises
Hope grows, Love overcomes
