Butter

Leyya

V1
All that ever keeps me high is to know I can lean on you Should I ever change the sides I'll let you know I won't lose my desire if you're not in for days we could end up higher but I can't keep you safe Is this why I'm losing my reality in your bed
in your bed

Chorus
I need your hands on my skin reloading my magazin spitting out my finest self in your head your greatest sin

V2
I'm not in for keeping you warm you're not safe if you lean on me I'm not in for keeping you warm
in your bed
in your bed

Chorus 2x V3
I won't claim possession you might treat me right this is no obsession you're just on my mind is this why I'm moving my reality onto your bed on your bedï»¿
