

Pennywise

Pennywise

Clear your mind, hide your fear
Don't look around, don't turn around pennywise here
Hold your feelings, hide your fear
Don't look around, don't turn around pennywise here
Evil lurks in his eyes
The clown they call pennywise
He'll catch you by surprise
The clown they call pennywise
He's a monster, he's not human
He's more than just a figment of your imagination
You can't run, can't hide
There's no way to escape pennywise
Evil lurks in his eyes
The clown they call pennywise
He'll catch you by surprise
The clown they call pennywise
He'll creep inside your soul at night and torment nice and slow
Don't turn around or look around pennywise will know
He'll make you wish that you were dead and make it hard to cope
He'll make you wish that you were dead and hanging by a rope
Evil lurks in his eyes
The clown they call pennywise
He'll catch you by surprise
The clown they call pennywise
Clear your mind, hide your fear
Don't look around, don't turn around pennywise here
