Space Angels

Admiral Twin

In fact
You're sorry that
You ever had to go
But you won't go back
You know and
It's sad
It's all you had
You never had to give it awayCountdown
Your wings have ground
One leg at a time
And still flapping around
It's bad
It's all you have
You never had to give it away
You never had to give into itCongratulations
Space angel
Psycho-superstar
Infatuation
For one solitary life
You never had to give it awayYoung fan
Celestial man
Sleuthing the sky
For adreneline
It's sad
It's all you had
You never had to give it awayUnstrung
A heroes son
Fiberglass wings
And a tommy gun
It's sad
It's all you had
You never had to give it away
You never had to give into itCongratulations
Space angel
Psycho-superstar
Infatuation
For one solitary life
You never had to give it awayIf I come there
Would you come near

To giving it all away?
If you were here
Would you still fear
You're giving it all away?
Interplanetary
Solitary
You're taking me back today
Wax halos melting
Space angels belting
We're going back todayCongratulations
Space angel
Psycho-superstar
Infatuation
For one solitary life
