Blessed Are the Lonely

Tony Blackburn

Bluebird on my shoulder has flown away
That old wind blows so much colder on my sunny day

I wonder (I wonder) how many hearts
Will tear apart till the end of time?
I wonder (I wonder) how many fools
Will be left standing in the crying line?

Oh, God bless the million tears (falling down)
Theyâ€™re gonna fall for a million years
God bless this loneliness (Iâ€™m with you)
Mourn for the lonely, ever love again

Picture how it used to be and watch yourself cry
Fiction, not reality, we lived a lie

Thereâ€™s people (thereâ€™s people) just like us
With a past they canâ€™t bear to face
I wonder (I wonder) how long
Till these hearts find their sheltered place?

Oh, God bless the million tears (falling down)
Theyâ€™re gonna fall for a million years

God bless this loneliness (Iâ€™m with you)
Mourn for the lonely, ever love again

God bless this loneliness (Iâ€™m with you)
Mourn for the lonely, ever love again
