Fire & Ice

Running Wild

Darkness taking place of heat and light
Fear and coldness fill the air
Silent shadows slitting through the night
And another frozen body hits the earthWhen madness rules and money talks
Beings better than these cursed as tainted dogsFight
When you're caught between the lines
No back and forth, no left or right
No holy ghost will save your life
Only tough men stand the fight
The hope for justice on your mind
Won't change the world
Don't waste your timeScraping subsistence from piled debris
His presence rubs against the grain
In shame avoids the hand of charity
Until the hunger drives him mad againThis life just seems to be a war
The devils enemy and a victim of the lawFight
When you're caught between the lines
No back and forth, no left or right
No holy ghost will save your life
Only tough men stand the fight
The hope for justice on your mind
Won't change the world
Don't waste your timeWhen madness rules and money talks
Beings better than these cast as tainted dogsFight
When you're caught between the lines
No back and forth, no left or right
No holy ghost will save yourLife
Only tough men stand the fight
The hope for justice on your mind
Won't change the world
Don't waste yourTime
When you're caught between the lines
No time to run, no place to hide
When your life is just a lonelyRide
Through the land of fire and ice
And all the dreams behind your eyes
Turned out to be a world of lies
