

Mother of Love

The Velvet Teen

he tries to play it safe like he knows he should, but he lives inside his mind and his heart's in hollywood and she'll never know that every corner of his mind holds a picture of her, so he won't forget down into his heart, he's consumed with her like a parasite
looking for a host in him
'cause she's too far away, and he's still a boy,
so he should just forget holy mother of love, we exalt thee
unto you all praise
and we thank thee
and we'll live out each day to its fullest extent it's just what we meant to do from the start
