

Lost Like Dreamers Are

For Selena And Sin

no passion, no more... we're lost like dreamers are dead with promises, we belong for yesterday and rejoice ashes embers slowly dying in our hearts the drops of bloob fall with disgrace

CHORUS:
no meaning, no desire, no plase for flames to burn any higher no future, no pretending, nothing anymore there come the waves to wash our pain away wash our dreams away no heaven, no devotions, we're standing in the dark one more time there's betrayal in our eyes and time to stop dreaming, time to stop bleeding in our hearts lament of the world, it's all that is left
