Freedom

Alice Cooper

We the people of the United States
In order to form a more perfect unionStop pretending that you've never been bad
You're never wrong and you've never been dirty
You're such a saint, that ain't the way we see you
You want to rule us with an iron hand
You change the lyrics and become big brother
This ain't Russia, you ain't my dad or mother
They never knew anyway'Cause I never walk away from what I know is right
But I'm gonna turn my back on youFreedom, we're gonna ring the bell
Freedom to rock, freedom to talk
Freedom, raise your fist and yell
Freedom to rock, freedom to talk
Freedom ringYou're playing God from your ivory tower
Back off preacher, I don't care if it's Sunday
I ain't no angel but I never felt better
We're a make-up metal degeneration
We're not as stupid as you want to make us
You better leave us, man
'Cause you sure can't take usNobody better tell you how to live your life
But you gotta do it on your ownFreedom, we're gonna ring the bell
Freedom to rock, freedom to talk
Freedom, raise your fist and yell
Freedom to rock, freedom to talk
Freedom'Cause I never walk away from what I know is right
But I'm gonna turn my back on youFreedom, we're gonna ring the bell
Freedom to rock, freedom to talk
Freedom, raise your fist and yell
FreedomFreedom, we're gonna ring the bell
Freedom to rock, freedom to talk
Freedom, raise your fist and yell
FreedomFreedom, we're gonna ring that bell
Freedom to rock, freedom to talk
Freedom, come on, raise your fist and yell
FreedomFreedom, we're gonna ring that bell
Freedom to rock, freedom to talk
Freedom, raise your fist, raise your fist
Raise your fist
