Bad Mood

Murmurs

If I found a town I'd like to spend the rest of life in ,maybe, I would
If I met a friend I'd like to tell all of my secrets to, maybe I would
If I saw a sea I'd like to swim across, or maybe dip my feet in, I would
If I found a seed I'd like to plant into a tree, maybe I would
If I never seem to understand, my purpose in this promised land
If I come across a man, who'd like take my hand, well I should
If I knew a trip I'd like to take some day, I know I would
I run up and down looking for what I've lost hoping its found
But sunshine doesn't shine all day, nothing seems to go my god damn way
So if I found the right road to go or maybe just to take a stroll,
I know I will
If I find the time to answer questions in my mind I know
I know I will
Yes, I know I will
