

In the City

Stax Revue

(Spoken)

Hey, y'all.

Yeah?

What are you thinking?

Never mind that; what are you drinking?

*laughs*

*cough*

Woo.

(Singing)

It's Friday night and I'm just so cool,

I'm gonna meet the boys down at Hogston Bar and Grill.

Well, the city girl sits down next to me, still in a suit with a G&T.

And I said, "Hey, you wanna have fun? Well, I'll see you in the city."

But I said, "Hey, you wanna have fun? Well, I'll see you in the city."

Let's go out tonight, grab a bite to eat.

Let's see Kountam Bar on up the street.

Will they play the blues all night long?

We can get down to your favourite song.

And I said, "Hey, you wanna have fun? Well, I'll see you in the city."

But I said, "Hey, you wanna have fun? Well, I'll see you in the city."

What I'm trying to tell you, so you can understand,

I can give you everything you want and meet you each demand.

You can lead the way, just tell me what to do.

Tell me, honey, if I should be walking home with you.

And I said, "Hey, you wanna have fun? Well, I'll see you in the city."

But I said, "Hey, you wanna have fun? Well, I'll see you in the city."

And I said, "Hey, you wanna have fun? Well, I'll see you in the city." (x2)
