Maze

Jessica Mauboy

You are so hard to read
Like a foreign novel
I don't know
If I'll ever figure you out
So many pieces of you
Like a jigsaw puzzle
My head is spinning around
Yeah, 'cause
One minute you want my touch
Next minute you don't want none
Honestly, don't know which way to go
This love is out of control
Oh, oh
Should I stay or should I go?
I don't know 'cause
Sometimes you treat me so special
Sometimes you don't
Sometimes you give me your best
Sometimes you're cold
Your heart is like a maze
Your heart is like a maze
Your heart is like a maze
Every day I keep losing my way
You make me insecure
Like I'm going crazy
But it can't be my fault
'Cause I'm trying hard
It's you, who won't commit
Everything is maybe
Leaving me out in the dark
Yeah, 'cause
One minute you want my touch
Next minute you don't want none
Honestly, I don't know which way to go
This love is out of control
Oh, oh
Should I stay or should I go?
I don't know 'cause
Sometimes you treat me so special

Sometimes you don't
Sometimes you give me your best
Sometimes you're cold
Your heart is like a maze
Your heart is like a maze
Your heart is like a maze
Every day I keep losing my way
So confused, I'm so lost
Everywhere I turn
Seems to be wrong
I need your help
Let me know
Give me a sign
Or let me know
That there's hope
'Cause oh, oh
Should I stay or should I go?
I don't know 'cause
Sometimes you treat me so cold
Oh, oh
Should I stay or should I go?
(Should I stay or should I go?)
I don't know 'cause
Sometimes you give me your best
(Just like a maze)
(I can't find my way)
Every day I keep losing my way
Oh, oh
Should I stay or should I go?
I don't know 'cause
Sometimes you give me your best
(Just like a maze)

Your heart is like a maze
(Your heart is just like a maze)
Every day I keep losing my way
