The Silent Orchestra

Hamilton Leithauser

Voices are singing
Moonlight and rapture
But pity and passion
Are for the childrenWhen you go dry
In your heart
Come and find me
I'll hang my hat
On the song that I'm singingI'll hang my hat on
The song I'm singing
Gracious and bitter
It makes no differenceWhen you go dry
In your heart
Come and find me
I'll hang my hat
On the songs that I'm singingWhen you go dry
In your heart
Come and find meWhen you get bored
Of your mind
Come and find meI left my footprints
Out in the sand
And all the kissing
Brought us to bed
When I was sleeping
You shook me hard
I have no memory
Under those starsWe made a promise
To remain strong
I have been honest
Honest enough
When I was sleeping
You shook me hard
I have no memory
Under those starsWishful thinkingWishful thinking
Wont set you right
Cos' yours is a strange light
I'll follow mineAnd when you get bored
Of your mind
Come and find me
I'll rest my head

On the songs that I'm singingWhen you get bored
Of your mind
Come and find me
