

Time

Mary J Blige

If I have my way
Life would be just fine
But the world is too much
And it makes me cry
Sometimes I feel like leaving
But I must be wise
Because time is not on a side
Because time is not on a side
The end is coming
Stop your running
I'm telling you this is the truth
People talk about
What they read about
Everything is on the news
People nowadays so shady
Now what is wrong with them
Something cast a spell up on their minds
And they always wanna condemn
If I have my way
Life would be just fine
But the world is too much
And it makes me cry
Sometimes I feel like leaving
But I must be wise
Because time is not on a side
Because time is not on a side
Why you're judging me?
You should look around
And you'll see how people going down
Some of them are killed over a dime
Now tell me do we really have the time
To continue with this madness
'Cause I'm sick and tired of this
Trying to crush my world with jealousy
And I'm about to catch a fit
If I have my way
Life would be just fine
But the world is too much

And it makes me cry
Sometimes I feel like leaving
But I must be wise
Because time is not on a side
Because time is not on a side
You are deceiving
What's the meaning
A few are retrieving
The enemy's grieving
We all are leaving, someday but
We don't know how, we are going
Please believe me, when I tell you
That time is not really on a side
If I have my way
And it makes me cry
Sometimes I feel like leaving
But I must be wise
Because time is not on a side
If I have my way
And it makes me cry
Sometimes I feel like leaving
But I must be wise
Because time is not on a side
Because time is not on a side
If I have my way
And it makes me cry
Sometimes I feel like leaving
But I must be wise
Because time is not on a side
